A Letter From Your Disease

Hello... just in case you forgot me... I am your disease...

I Hate meetings... I Hate higher powers... I Hate anyone who has a program. To all who come in contact with me, I wish you death and I wish you suffering.

Allow me to introduce myself: I am the disease of addiction. I Am cunning, baffling, and powerful. That's Me. I have killed millions and I am pleased.

I love to catch you with the element of surprise. I love pretending I am your friend and lover. I have given you comfort, haven't I? Wasn't I there when you were lonely? When you wanted to die, didn't you call on me?

I was there, I love to make you hurt. I love to make you cry. Better yet, I Love to make you so numb you can neither hurt nor cry.

When you can't feel anything at all; this is true gratification. And all that I ask from you is long-term suffering. I've been there for you always. When things were going right in your life, you invited me. You said you didn't deserve these good things, and I was the only one who would agree with you.

Together we were able to destroy all the good things in your life.

People don't take me seriously.

They take strokes seriously, heart attacks, even diabetes they take seriously. Fools! Without my help these things would not be possible. I am such a hated disease, and yet I do not come uninvited. You choose to have me.

So many have chosen me over reality and peace.

More than you hate me, I hate all of you who have a 12 step program. Your program, Your meeting, Your higher power. All of these things weaken me, and I can't function in the manner I am accustomed to. Now I must lie here quietly. You don't see me but I am growing bigger than ever.

When you only exist, I may live.

When you live, I may only exist.

But I am here...

And until we meet again, if we meet again, I wish you death and suffering. (borrowed from Delaware OA retreat 2009)

THE OA LANGUAGE OF RECOVERY

If I have a problem and eat over it, then I have two problems.

I have a disease that tells me I don't have a disease.

I can't. God can. I think I'll let God.

Don't wait until you feel better to do it. Do it and you'll feel better.

I resigned from the debating society.

It's not odd; it's God.

Meeting makers make it.

Peace is seeing a sunset and Trace it. Face it.

Erase it.

Procrastination is the thief of time.

The worst day abstinent is better than the best day overeating.

We are only one bite away from a binge.

We never have to hurt ourselves with food again.

When in doubt - don't.

A program of action.

The 12 Steps of Insanity

1. We admitted we were powerless over nothing. We could manage our lives perfectly and we could manage those of anyone else that would allow it.
2. Came to believe that there was no power greater than ourselves, and the rest of the world was insane.
3. Made a decision to have our loved ones and friends turn their lives over to our care.
4. Made a searching and fearless moral inventory of everybody we encountered.
5. Admitted to the world at large the exact nature of their wrongs.
6. Were entirely ready to make others straighten up and do things our way.
7. Demanded that others either "shape up or ship out".
8. Made a list of anyone who ever harmed us and became willing to go to any lengths to get even with them all.
9. Got direct revenge on such people whenever possible except when to do so would cost us our own lives, or at the very least a jail sentence.
10. Continued to take inventory of others and when they were wrong, promptly and repeatedly told them all about it.
11. Sought through nagging to improve the thoughts of others, as we couldn't understand them at all, asking only that they do things our way.
12. Having had a complete emotional and spiritual breakdown as a result of these steps, we tried to blame others and get sympathy and pity in all our affairs.
